LPGTECH LLC is a leading global manufacturer of components and LPG/CNG systems for the automotive industry.

In our company we strongly focus on Research & Development and continuous improvement of our design – beginning with mechanical components through to electronic controllers, to the software cooperating with computers, tablets and smart phones.

While introducing new products we combine innovation with reliability and ultimate functionality which means the ease of installation and maintenance. LPGTECH's products are the perfect combination of professionalism, knowledge, years of experience of our engineers and the quality of applied components. Following global automotive trends we challenge ourselves to introduce new, innovative technologies which are fully tested in our R&D Laboratory. This gives us an opportunity to provide the state-of-the-art technical solutions to our clients.

According to our motto "Perfect Autogas Installations", we offer reliable products which are manufactured in accordance with the ISO 9001;2009 norms. Our products come with a long-term warranty.
